COAL MINE TROUBLE PROBABLE
AS THE RESULT OF REFERENDUMMiners Voting This Week on New York Agreement--
Contract in Disfavor

MINERS MAKING OBJECTIONS

Complain That Increases Are Not Justified--Scale Committee Explains Why Increases Are Necessary--
—Meeting of Miners Held Sunday

That there are breakers ahead in the mining industry over the agreement between the Pittsburgh district operators and the United Mine Workers of America District No. 5 is indicated by late developments in the coal fields. This week a referendum vote on the question of acceptance of the New York agreement on the district wage scale is being taken at all mines in the Pittsburgh district, and there looms up the probability that the agreement will be voted down. If it is the miners will be left without a contract with the operators and a strike will be one of serious propositions. The condition is the same throughout the entire district.

A meeting of miners was held in the Italian hall, Charleroi, Sunday. It was called by some of the miners of Charleroi who were on strike last week over the enforcement of certain so-called clauses in the new district contract being voted on this week. Some miners felt aggrieved that the agreement should be enforced at the Charleroi mine before a vote had been taken. Letters were sent out all over the district inviting miners to the meeting. Many came from the Panhandle section, the Youghiogheny valley and the Monongahela valley. However only a comparative few knew why the meeting was called and a number explained they could not act without instruction from their own local unions. A motion was put providing for the removal of certain officials.

Objections to the new agreement are made by some of the miners who claim there has been an unjust increase in such things as house rent, coal for household uses, powder and concussion caps. They also object to fines provided for loading dirty coal and to fines authorized for men illegally on strike.

Those composing the committee arranging the scale explain that whatever increases have been made have been those due to the increased cost of material. The European war naturally enough, they say, has resulted in tremendous advances in powder and concussion caps, but upon its close they anticipate powder will be cheaper than at any time heretofore. Miners will get the benefit.

In questions of discipline the agreement contains the same regulations that prevail in Ohio, Illinois and Indiana. One of the important rules relates to the settlement of individual cases within a period of five days where men have been discharged. Wherever discharges or suspensions are found unjust miners are compensated for their time off.

In regard to loading dirty coal a provision is contained in the agreement that is aimed to prevent this being done, but the miners themselves are given jurisdiction by a provision enabling them to name an inspector.

If the referendum is voted down a special convention of the district will be the next procedure and the future

LADIES' AUXILIARY REALIZES

$250 IN TAG SALE SATURDAY

Approximately 3,000 People Contributed to Fund for Benefit of Local Hospital.

In round figures $250 was realized by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Charleroi Monessen hospital. The sale was in charge of a committee of young women, aided by children, with Mrs. Willis McCook as chairman. Mrs. McCook's sale of tags was the largest, her receipts for the day being $36.41. Considering that the money taken in was mostly in nickles and dimes the sale is all the more remarkable. Probably 3,000 people contributed to the fund and wore a tag. She tags were tiny American flags.

NOT MUCH CRIME
HERE SATURDAY

Pickpockets and Others Follow up Circus But Get Little Chance to Work

MANY DETECTIVES ON HAND

As usual pickpockets and other gentry of the class that "weave not neither do they spin" traveled in the wake of the big circus which Saturday showed in Charleroi yet only one pocket was picked so far as the many officers on duty were able to learn. Peter Usher of Charleroi was at the ticket wagon to the big circus when a husky colored man shoved his way through the crowd to his side. In a moment he fished $2 in money from Usher's pocket and dove away. He was chased but not caught.

A big corps of plain clothes men were here Saturday looking for evil characters of the sort which usually follow a circus. Some of the best men on the Pittsburgh detective force were on hand and the Pennsylvania Railroad had a number of division men here. However the railroaders were on duty chiefly to look after railroad property and to guard crossings.

On Saturday 17 arrests were made, most of these being for drunkenness.

policy of the organization arranged. By the district officers whatever action was taken at the Charleroi meeting Sunday is not being considered as legal. They say it was contrary to the organization laws. Among other business transacted was that of the appointment of a committee of 12 to take up matters relative to a new convention.

CHARLEROI HOSTS
PLEASED BY CIRCUS

Parade, Dispensed With Late, and Dust, Always Present, Fail to Dampen Ardor--Shows High-Class in Character

Though late in arriving and forced at the last moment to dispense with a public street parade in the face of announcement that one would be held, the Haggenbeck-Wallace Circus entertained immense crowds Saturday at their afternoon and evening shows. The circus was the first of this season and it was truly representative as one of the biggest traveling aggregations of the world.

The circus came from Indiana, Pa. this by the way being quite a distance out on a branch line. Arriving shortly after 10 o'clock all haste was pursued in getting up tents, but it was not until about 3:30 that affairs were in shape for the beginning of the first performance. The Haggenbeck-Wallace company have been hard hit by the labor shortage and their force of tent men and roustabouts is short by from 100 to 200.

In spite of dust which bothered performers and spectators alike, the show was as splendid one. Some high-class acts that were new and original were staged, to the extreme gratification of the huge crowds that thronged the big tent, afternoon and evening. It would be impossible to select certain acts as better than others. Trapeze performers were as skilled as any ever seen here, horsemen and horsewomen were superb in their lineacrobats and tumblers were of the highest class, the clown work immense—in fact the whole circus was of the very best. Performing animals occupied considerable attention and they were remarkably well trained. Then there were thrills, such as the act of a man of Japan who draws a big salary for sliding down a steep wire twice a day on his head, and the man who thrusts his head in a lion's mouth and a few dozen other specialties too numerous to mention.

The side show features were of the usual kind, and entertaining. The vendors of circus lemonade, ice cream cones, etc., were also entertaining—to the children.

Owing to the scarcity of men packing up was a harder job than usual with a circus, and the first of the three sections did not get away from Charleroi until 3:30 o'clock in the morning. The shows made the jump to Lewistown, a distance of about 250 miles away on the main line of the Pennsylvania railroad between Altoona and Harrisburg.

CHARLEROI HIGH WINS
PLACES IN BIG MEET

Local Track Men Demonstrate Their Class in Interscholastic Affair at Washington—Riva Wins Half-Mile Run.

Charleroi high school athletes took sixth place in the annual interscholastic field meeting stages at Washington Saturday under the auspices of Washington and Jefferson college.

The schools scoring points ranked in the following order: Peabody, 49; Kiski, 37 1-2; McKeesport, 31 1-2; West Virginia preparatory, 30; Wilkesburg, 16 1-2; Charleroi, 14 1-2; Pittsburg Central, 12; Pittsburg South, 10; Washington and East Washington, 1. Burgettstown and Beaver Falls did not send athletes who had been entered.

Charleroi's team consisted of Stahlman, Hill, Lowstuter, Riva and Carson. Places taken by Charleroi contestants were: 100-yard dash, Hill, third; half-mile run, won by Riva; running high jump, Carson, second (tied); mile relay, Charleroi team third.

Riva, Charleroi's crack half-miler, demonstrated his class by taking this event, which had a big field of starters. The Charleroi relay team finished third, and other point scorers for Charleroi were Hill, who was third in the 100-yard dash and Carson, who tied with Kincaid of Peabody in the high jump for second place.

LIGHTS BLINK WHEN BAD
ELECTRICAL STORM BREAKS

Lights blinked and in some districts gave up the ghost entirely for the time being Sunday night when an electrical and rain storm combined to make people shiver. The bark was worse than the bite. The West Penn Electric company reported little damage and telephone communication was not much disarranged.

MONESSEN POLICEMAN NOT GUILTY OF MURDER

Phillip Pascoe Acquitted of Charge in Connection With Shooting of Peter Delekanich at Monessen on February 6.

Police Officer Phillip Pascoe of Monessen has been acquitted in the Greensburg courts on a charge of murdering Peter Delekanich, also of Monessen. Sunday morning, February 6, while Officer Pascoe was making his rounds, he was attacked by a crowd of foreigners returning from a dance in the French hall. The men were beating the officer when he whipped out his revolver and shot in the air twice to attract the attention of Officer Stull. Delekanich then grabbed the officer and in the scuffle the revolver was discharged, the bullet striking Delekanich in the abdomen. He fell unconscious and died the same afternoon in the Monessen-Charleroi hospital. Pascoe went to Greensburg and gave himself up, furnishing a bond for his appearance in court.

Owing to the occupancy of the building used the last two years for the voting place in the sixth precinct a quick change in location has been necessary and the polling house for the primaries tomorrow in the sixth will be in the Metropolitan Baptist church at 701 Meadow avenue. This is the announcement being made by the judge of election in the sixth, John H. Frye. The new voting place will be more centrally located than the one previously used. This is the only change in Charleroi of the polling house, all the others remaining as they were.

ABLE TALENT FOR BIG CONVENTION.

Dr. Thornton of Ohio Among Others Coming For Sunday School Meeting

PROGRAM COMMITTEE MEETS

At a meeting of the executive board of the Washington County Sabbath School Association in Charleroi Saturday, with President W. S. James presiding, the constitution was revised and plans were gone over for the annual county Sunday school convention to be held in California June 29 and 30. A new constitution was adopted simply for the reason that the ever progressing association has outgrown the old one.

The program committee consisting of President James, Mrs. Mary L. Stewart of Washington, the county field secretary, and Prof. H. H. Saylor of Roscoe, met Saturday. Able talent has been secured for the annual convention. Dr. Thornton one of the ablest Sunday school experts in Cincinnati, will be one of the speakers.

LOCAL AUTOMOBILE LEADS SHOW
PARADE INSIDE TENT SATURDAY

When the parade inside the big circus tent Saturday with the Haggenbeck-Wallace circus began, local people were somewhat surprised to see in the lead a party of local people in a big 1917 Mitchell automobile. The driver was Guy Woodward of the Elite Garage, owned by George W. Moody and with him was a party of friends and one circus man. The idea was a neat advertising scheme arranged with the circus people by Mr. Moody.

Republicans Will Show Considerable Strength at Polls Tuesday

INTEREST IN THE ASSEMBLY

Three to Nominate--Battle to be Waged With Six Candidates in the Field--Democrats Interesting Themselves Likewise in Assembly

Warming up within the last few days the political fight in Washington county, arriving at its climax tomorrow, promises to bring out a big vote in the Republican votes. It is not expected that Democrats will overtax themselves getting to the polls and the vote cast by the other parties will be as usual somewhat of a negligible quantity. In Charleroi probably there will not be the Republican vote that for instance there was cast last fall, yet there will be pretty heavy balloting.

When the Republican voter receives his ballot he will note at the top of the list the name of Martin G. Brumbaugh for president. Then come in order United States senator for which P. C. Knox is a candidate, state treasurer with J. V. Clark of Washington and H. M. Kephart of Fayette county as candidates, and general, Charles A. Ambler of Montgomery and Charles A. Snyder, Schuylkill county, representatives in congress at large with a number of candidates, delegates at large to the national convention, alternate delegates, delegated from the district to the national convention, alternate delegates, representative in congress from the district with Henry W. Temple as candidate, representative in the general assembly representative of the state committee and member of the county committee.

The National delegate fight is warming because of the factional disturbances between the Brumbaugh and Penrose factions. But most local interest centers in the assembly contest. John W. Aber of Washington has withdrawn as a candidate, the fight between G. P. Baker of Washington, T. B. H. Brownlee of East Washington, J. W. Donaldson of North Strabane, H. L. Lamb of California, George C. McPeake of Canonsburg and J. Add Sprowls of Donora. For district delegates to the national convention valley support will be tendered Joseph A. Herron of Monongahela, J. Rankin Martin of Beaver, Elmer I. Phillips of Lawrence and James H. Cunningham of Beaver will all receive a good vote. There are two to elect. For member of the state committee D. M. McCloskey is the only candidate.

The Democrats will nominate three assemblymen and interest centers there, "Stickers" will be used for C. Vester of Washington, though other candidates will be considered.

RIVERMEN ANTICIPATE PASSAGE

OF THREE-DOLLARS-A-DAY BILL

The Nolan three-dollar-a-day bill, which provides that no employee of the government shall work for less than $3 a day has been favorably reported from the house committee on labor at Washington and according to Congressman Henry W. Temple of this district is in a fair way to pass. If enacted the bill will mean considerable to the government employees of North Charleroi and the Pittsburg district, as it will affect all employees on the river locks and engaged in river work.
